

I support XM Radio and satellite radio in their broadcast of weather and traffic conditions. I have found it most useful when travelling around the Eastern United States this past Spring. It saved me many unnerving traffic problems around Baltimore and Washington. Because of Satellite Radio I was able to find alternative routes and avoid unnecessary traffic conditions. I fully support this wonderful Satellite Radio feature and strongly recommend its support by the FCC